

Lenten Devotional Reflection
12th March, 2020 (Lent Day Fourteen)

Scripture: Hebrews 3:1-6 New Revised Standard Version (NRSV)

¹Therefore, brothers and sisters, holy partners in a heavenly calling, consider that Jesus, the apostle and high priest of our confession, ²was faithful to the one who appointed him, just as Moses also “was faithful in all God’s house.” ³Yet Jesus is worthy of more glory than Moses, just as the builder of a house has more honor than the house itself. ⁴(For every house is built by someone, but the builder of all things is God.) ⁵Now Moses was faithful in all God’s house as a servant, to testify to the things that would be spoken later. ⁶Christ, however, was faithful over God’s house as a son, and we are his house if we hold firm the confidence and the pride that belong to hope.

Message

During our lifetime, we have different identities, jobs and roles which continue to change over time. However, Christians are chosen by God and part of God’s calling. This call does not depend on our personal preferences or choices. On the contrary, we were born for the call and live for it to show the difference from the world and testify a holy life (verse 1).

Moses, one of the greatest national heroes among Israelites, completed the mission according to God’s will and calling. He preached humbly, followed God’s words and showed faithfulness without giving up.

We may not be always ardent in spirit to serve the Lord and respond to His call. At the time of Lent, we should rebuild our partnership with Jesus Christ through continual growth in our spiritual life. Let us make every effort to fulfil God’s will and follow His example.

Reflection

1. How does the writer remind you the importance of acknowledging Jesus as your Saviour through the calling of Moses?
2. How can you stably build a life relationship through Jesus Christ as your living stone?
3. We all have a specific calling from God. What is your call?

The Revd Hubert CHE Pun-ho (St Titus’ Church)